Healthy Brain Network

Do you know a child having difficulty with reading or math?

NYC Metro-area children (aged 6-11) with learning difficulties may qualify for a research program offering online reading and math interventions to improve their skills!

Participating families receive, at no cost:

- A tablet and headphones
- 12 weeks of online reading and math interventions
- Evaluations of intelligence, academic, social-emotional, attention and reasoning skills
- A report that can be used to inform treatment and classroom instructions (504 plan/IEP)

Participants receive up to $350 compensation.
