

Build a Career in Mental Health

The Child Mind Institute’s Youth Mental Health Academy is a community-based, career development program including paid internships, mentorship, project-based learning, and student support. Students will gain valuable knowledge and experience in mental health science, practice, and communications by working with professionals from organizations doing work in those areas.

COLLEGE NAVIGATION SUPPORT

SUMMER CAPSTONE PRESENTATION

EARN UP TO $2,000

ELIGIBILITY

- 15 to 18 years old when the program begins
- Enrolled in a public or private high school in CA
- Have an overall GPA of 2.5 or higher
- From a structurally marginalized community (details on website)
- Have a strong interest in mental health

Learn more and apply at childmind.org/youth-mental-health-academy

In partnership with

